Assistant Pastor Here.

Rev. R. S. Fountain, of Tarboro, came some days ago and will remain during the summer as assistant pastor of the Baptist church. Mr. Fountain has just graduated from Wake Forest College, and is a young man of much promise.

The people of Scotland Neck extend to Mr. Fountain a most cordial welcome.

Protracted Meeting.

Rev. L. T. Singleton, pastor of the Methodist church, has announced that a series of meetings will be commenced next Sunday and continue through the week and perhaps longer. Rev. A. D. Wilcox, pastor of the Louisville Methodist church, will do the preaching. Mr. Wilcox is said to be a splendid revivalist, having been very successful in this particular kind of work.

The public is especially invited to attend these meetings.

Messrs Allsbrook & Boyette,
Scotland Neck, N. C.
Gentlemen:—

Permit us to express our appreciation to you for the admirable volume of business you have been securing in your Royal Tailoring Department.

The title "Master of the Tape Line" truly fits you to a happy "T", and if we have not already officially conferred it upon you—please consider it duly administered now.

The enclosed little booklet shows a few of the hosts of big merchants who have pledged themselves, not alone in spirit, but in action and co-operation, to the high ideals of value-giving and customer-serving to which Royal Tailoring is committed. You certainly belong to that class, and we want you to know that we appreciate your good work.

This type of efficient co-operation in your store, backed by our advertising and our service, can only mean an ever increasing Royal Tailoring trade for you.

Your very truly,
THE ROYAL TAILORS.

If you have not already done so, come in and get "That Million Dollar Look."

A June Message From The

Paul-Gale-Greenwood Co., of Norfolk Virginia

June is the month of brides and roses. It is the first vacation month, it is a time when we love to get away from the usual order of things—a month of pleasure. It is also a month for Wedding Gifts, as well as the season for choosing new things in jewelry for personal use, and as this sixty-eight year old store of reliability can serve you as none other in the South, we want you to write us how we can help you. Should you be coming to Norfolk or planning a trip here this summer, don't fail to visit us. A cordial welcome awaits you, and then you can see why we can serve you in the superior manner we do.

Terms $5.00. For further information see

Miss Eleanor Smith
Miss Cornelia Josey.

Rev. and Mrs. McFarland Surprised.

A well laid plan was happily carried out on last Thursday afternoon to give Rev. and Mrs. R. A. McFarland a pleasant surprise. It was the twelfth anniversary of their marriage. While Rev. and Mrs. McFarland were out visiting the ladies of the church, who had everything in readiness, went to the parsonage and set a most excellent table elegantly decorated with flowers and laden with a most delicious supper. The ladies next entered the butler's pantry, which is hard-by the dining-room, and converted it into a veritable storage room in which they placed sugar, flour, hams, preserves, pickles, canned fruits and meats, coffee, cereals, etc. When they had carried out their designs, the intruders beat a hasty retreat, and when Mr. and Mrs. McFarland reached home about six-thirty o'clock they found the parsonage quiet but soon discovered evidences of trespassers, and upon investigation found a lavish expression of the love and esteem of a loyal people.

Miss Josey Entertains.

Saturday afternoon Miss Louise Josey entertained the Scissors Club in honor of Miss Stella Hoffman, who became the bride of Mr. D. Ray Boyette yesterday (Wednesday) at high noon. The home was charmingly decorated with pink roses and sweetpeas, while cunning little Cupids peeped out from every nook and corner.

An interesting game of hearts dice was played after which a delicious two-course luncheon was served.

The most attractive feature of the occasion followed immediately when little Irwin Clark Kitchin, representing a Cupid, entered drawing a dainty pink wagon piled high with mysterious bundles. He carried these to Miss Hoffman who on opening the packages found an evidence of the love and friendship of the club members as displayed in the beautiful pieces of linen given her.

The score cards and napkins, carrying out the Cupid scheme, were charmingly decorated in water colors by Miss Janet White.

The out of town guests were Misses Martha Harris of Franklinton, Lelaiah Stillwell of Savannah, Ga., and Annie Highsmith of Fayetteville.

A Most Enjoyable Party.

Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Rebe Shields, on North Main Street, the young men gave a most delightful party complimentary to the visiting young ladies. Various games were engaged in, besides those who wished to do so were furnished music for the "light fantastic" by Mr. John Josey and Miss Nannie Shields, after which a most delicious supper was enjoyed.

Those participating were: Mr. David Bryant with Miss Nannie Shields, Mr. Hinton Dunn with Miss Sadie Kitchin, Mr. William Josey with Miss Augusta Driggers, Mr. Chas. Josey with Miss Josephine Dillery, Mr. Henry Ellard with Miss Mary Pittman, Mr. Mason Dunn with Miss Nannie Lamb, Mr. Robert Maury with Miss Willie Moore, Mr. John Edwards with Miss Lelaiah Kitchin, Mr. John Josey with Miss Ruby Darden, Mr. Allison McDowell with Miss Gertrude Whitehead, Mr. Hubert Riddick with Miss Jennie Dunn, Mr. Peyton H. Brown with Miss Mattie Josey, Mr. William Alexander with Miss Mary Lamb, Mr. Eddie House with Miss Lydia Josey, Mr. Wilbur Hadden with Miss Bonnielyn Whitley, Mr. Nerleed McDowell with Miss Beasie Dunn, Mr. Sam Kitchin, Jr., with Miss Louise Darden.

It All Depends Upon the Burner

After all, it doesn't matter how well an OIL STOVE is made, or how handsome it is dressed, if the BURNERS are not reliable, efficient and absolutely durable, the stove is no good.

NATIONAL OIL STOVES WITH THE "SHOT BLAST" FLAME have the BEST BURNERS, as we can show you.

The stock is the best kind. The design is the short "Direct Action" principle—that of applying the fire directly against the kettle.

It stands to reason that the nearer the distance between flame and kettle the better the loss in efficiency.

The National will take the place of the coal or wood stove. It will cook and fry as well with speed. It doesn't loaf and slop around heat. Come and see for yourself.
